My name is Rfaiki. I love new adventures. I like to go on these adventures with other animals. I am never alone. Someone is always hanging out with me, like... Tizzy. She is like bubble gum, stuck to the street...but ON ME!!!

I think I like Tizzy but I need some time to think. One thing that worries me is her mother, Tutti Fruti. I hope she doesn't find out or she'll yank me by my beard!

My name means friend. I am a very social goat. My best friend on the farm is Gus. He understands me a lot and gives me advice on girls. He also tells me the best way to get the best food. My other buddy is Puddin. He loves to talk a lot - he is the leader of our group. We always do good things around the farm we like to help out.

Nobody knows this but Gus, Joey and I like to go out at night and trim all the bushes and flowers around the farm. After the last feeding at the farm, we sneak through the fence and get to work all night long. We trim here and we trim there. Sometimes we end up down by the fire pit trimming the grass. People always wonder why different parts are trimmed, well it's us. Before the first feeding in the morning we find our way back to the barn so that nobody knows where we have been. So most of the day, I lounge around and take naps, for I'm tired after being up all night. I love our little adventures! If you come visit me in the mornings be especially quiet for it's when I get my best sleep. Best to come visit me near sunset, I'm much more awake and ready for work!
